—Motions in the Criminal Court today.

—Marrage licenses were issued yesterday to Henry Butts and Miss Bettie Flynn.

—James R. Goodlett was yesterday appointed administrator of Henry M. Strickland.

—Judge Pierce presided in the Criminal Court yesterday and received the report of the grand jury.

—President Hadden is at home again, but his illness does not appear to have been of any advantage to him.

—The business of the Circuit Court will be wound up for the term on Monday, when Judge Pierce will sign the minutes for the term.

—After much figuring, it has been decided to hold the primaries open from 5 to 7 o'clock, which will give all hands a chance to vote.

—At a meeting of the Central Council of the Tennessee Bar Association, presided over by Col. B. M. Estes, it was decided to hold a meeting of the Association in this city July 1st and 2d.

—Criminal Court will not be in session today on account of the death of Mrs. Judge Douglas. Calendar for Monday: 135, John Sims; 134, W. R. Rogers; 82, J. W. James; 148-149, Thos. Adams.

—The grand jury was busy with the Sunday ball play yesterday. The clubs were all indicted on complaint of a number of members of the church in the vicinity of the park, who complain that public worship is disturbed.

—Treasurer Green's benefit promises to be a big success. Tickets are on sale at all of the cigar stands and hotels, and are selling rapidly. The Doctor of Alcantara is one of the brightest operators ever produced in this city, and there has been a big demand for it ever since it was produced at the Young Men's Hebrew Association Hall.

—Daily rehearsal of the Doctor of Alcantara are going on and the cast feel confident that the presentation of that delightful opera for Treasurer Green's benefit next Thursday night will be much more complete, artistic and enjoyable than when it was first presented here about three months ago. The sale of tickets is large.

—The jury in the case of M. C. Pearce vs. Suggs & Pettit returned a verdict for the defendants on all the points in controversy, and by their verdict said that the sale from Pearce to Suggs & Pettit was a valid and legal sale; that there was no fraud practiced by Suggs & Pettit upon said Pearce, but that the whole transaction was fair and square.

—John Sing, formerly a citizen of the Celestial empire, was to have been tried in the Criminal Court today for passing a $50 counterfeit bill upon Sam Lee, formerly of the city of Peking. The following prominent Americans are summoned as witnesses against John Chinaman: Allen Bing, Hart Sing, Louis Eng and Henry String.

—The announcement of Mr. John F. McCallum as a candidate for reelection to the office of Register appears in another column. He is a sterling Democrat and one of the most popular men in the county. His duties have been discharged in a highly satisfactory manner during the past four years, and the man who is elected will have to beat him. His chances are excellent.

—The Rev. G. L. Knight, the healing evangelist, will lecture at Raleigh at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening. He comes from Fort Scott, Kas., and claims to be able to make the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame to walk. He proposes to publish a book entitled Miracles for Our Time, in which the glory of the nineteenth century, the Goliath of the nineteenth century, is picked up, and his challenge to the church to prove his doctrine by working miracles is accepted.

—The meeting of Banner Lodge No. 147, I. O. O. F., last night was a highly interesting one to the members of the order who were present on that occasion. Hon. H. B. Case, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee, honored it with his presence, and a large number of the Past Guards and other members of the sister city lodges and several visitors from other States were also in attendance. During the evening a candidate was initiated in the usual excellent and impressive manner that this live and progressive lodge is noted for. The members were also highly entertained by a brief address by the Grand Master and remarks from Jacob Deutch from Little Rock, Prof. W. S. Jones, P. G. W. S. Bruce, J. W. S. Browne and D. F.
